CASE AGAINST: Serge ARNAL and others

RE:
VISIT, SEARCH at [REDACTED], address of ODEKERKEN's mother
SEIZURES, SEALS

OFFICIAL REPORT

At 10.00 on 5 September 1997, I, Olivier Debon, a Police Lieutenant in the Criminal Investigation Department, an officer of the Judicial Police in Paris, acting in accordance with and in execution of the Letter Rogatory referred to in the first report, assisted by Police Captain Mario Menara of this department, accompanied by David Odekerken, in police custody, went to [REDACTED], address of the mother of the person in custody, where, at the time shown above, I entered the premises and went to the right-hand door on the ground floor where the door was opened to me at my request by:

Josiane Debuysère, born 30.4.47 in Belgium, David Odekerken's mother.

Having identified myself, explained the purpose of my visit and produced the judicial delegation under which I was acting, I entered the premises.

With David Odekerken present at all times, I carried out a careful search of the premises.

They consist of a luxury F 3 type flat with an entrance hall opposite a living room and kitchen. A wide bay window opens on to a garden. On the right of the hall a corridor leads to two bedrooms, the bathroom and lavatory.

At my request Odekerken handed over a set of keys placed on a low piece of furniture on the right of the living room. The set consisted of a key ring with the Mitsubishi logo, a remote control and four keys.

When asked about the set of keys, Odekerken, having first taken the legally prescribed oath, stated:

"This is the set of keys for my Mitsubishi Pajero which is parked in a car park at 13 rue Raynouard, 16e".

I retained the set of keys in order to search the vehicle, explaining that after my operation it would be returned to the property taken from Mr Odekerken when he was searched.
